50.-(1) Every person in an official duty or being employed in the administration of this Act shall regard and deal with all documents, information, returns, assessment list and copies of such list relating to the profits or items of profits of any company, as secret and confidential.

(2) A person in possession of or control, of any document; information, return of assessment list or copy of such list relating to the income or profits or losses of any person, who at any time communicates or attempts to communicate such information or anything contained in such document, return, list or copy to any person -

(a) other than a person to whom he is authorized by the Service to communicate it ;

(b) otherwise than for the purpose of this Act or of any enactment in Nigeria imposing tax on the income of persons, commits an offence under this Act.

(3) A person appointed or employed under this Act shall not be required to produce any return, document or assessment or to divulge or communicate any information that comes into his possession in the performance of his duties except as may be necessary in order to institute a prosecution, or in the course of a prosecution for any offence committed-in relation to any tax in Nigeria.

(4) Where under any law in force in respect of any double taxation treaty with any country, provision is made for the allowance of relief from income tax in respect of the payment of income tax in Nigeria, the obligation as to secrecy imposed by this section shall not prevent the disclosure to the authorized officer of the Government in that country of such facts as may be necessary to enable the proper relief to be given in cases where relief is claimed from the tax in Nigeria or from income tax in that country.

(5) .Where any agreement or arrangement with any other country with respect to relief for double taxation of income or profits includes provisions for the exchange of information with that country for the purpose of implementing that relief or preventing avoidance of tax, the obligation as to secrecy imposed by this section shall not prevent the disclosure of such information to the authorized officers of the Government of such country.

51.-(1) In the exercise of the powers and duties conferred upon the Board by this Act, the Board shall be subject to the general direction of the Minister and any written direction, order or instruction given by him after consultation with the Executive Chairman shall be carried out by the Board:

Provided that the Minister shall not give any directive, order or instruction in respect of any particular person which would have the effect of requiring the Board to increase or decrease any assessment of tax made or to be made or any relief given or to be given or to defer the collection of any tax or judgment debt due, or which would have the effect of initiating, forbidding the initiation of withdrawing or altering the normal course of any proceeding whether civil or criminal, relating either to the recovery of any tax or to any offence under any of the laws listed in the First Schedule.

(2) In any proceeding whether civil or criminal under this Act or any of the laws listed in the First Schedule, any act, matter or thing done by the Service or the Board in pursuance of the said laws shall not be subject to challenge on the ground that such act, matter or thing was not or was not proved to be in accordance with any directive, order or instruction given by the Minister.

52.-(1) Any power conferred and any duty imposed upon the Board may be exercised or performed by the Board or by an officer authorized generally or specifically in that behalf by the Board.

(2) Notwithstanding the provisions of subsection (1) of this section, the Board may, at any time and at its discretion, reverse or otherwise modify any decision of any officer affecting any tax or taxable income, whether or not the discretion to make the decision was conferred on the officer by any law specified in the First Schedule or whether or not the officer was authorized by the Service to make the decision, and the reversal or modification of the decision by the Board shall have effect as if it were the original decision made in respect of the matter concerned.

(3) An order, ruling or directive made or given by an approved committee of the Board pursuant to this section, shall not be treated as an order, ruling or directive of the Board, until the order, ruling or directive has been ratified by the Board pursuant to the powers vested on the Board under this Act.

53. Anything done or required to be done by the Service in pursuance of any of its powers or duties under this Act or the laws, listed in the First Schedule may be signified under the hand of the Executive Chairman or of an officer who has been Authorized by the Board for the purpose of this section.

54.-(1) If the Service is satisfied that a person who is or was in its employment

(a) is or was responsible for any improper payment of moneys from the fund of the Service or for any payment of such money which is not duly documented;

(c) being or having been an officer, fails or has failed to keep proper accounts or record; or

(d) has failed to make any payment, or is responsible for any delay in the payment of moneys for the Service to any person to whom such payment is due under any contract, agreement or arrangement entered into between that person and the Service, and if a satisfactory explanation is not furnished to the Service within a period specified by the Board with regard to the failure to collect, improper payment, payment not duly documented, deficiency or destruction, failure to keep proper accounts or records, failure to make payment or delay in making payment, the Service may surcharge the said person such sum as it may think fit.

(2) Any action taken under subsection (1) of this section shall be subject to the approval of the Board and when such approval is obtained the Executive Chairman shall notify the person surcharged under this section.

(3) The Board may at any time withdraw any surcharge in respect of which a satisfactory explanation has been received from the person concerned or if it otherwise appears that no surcharge should have been made, the Board shall at once inform the Executive Chairman of such withdrawal.

(4) The amount of any surcharge imposed under subsection (1) of this section and not withdrawn under subsection (3) of this section shall be a debt due to the Service from the person against whom the surcharge is imposed and may be sued for and recovered in any court in any suit initiated by the Service for its recovery and may also be recovered by deduction from the salary of the person surcharged if the Board so directs.

55.-(1) Subject to the provisions of this Act, the provisions of the Public Officers Protection Act shall apply in relation to any suit instituted against any member, officer or employee of the Service.

(2) Notwithstanding anything contained in any other law or enactment, no suit against the Executive Chairman, a member of the Board, or any other officer or employee of the Service for any act done in pursuance or execution of this Act or any other law or enactment, or of any public duty or authority or in respect of any alleged neglect or default in the execution of this Act or any other law or enactment, duty or authority, shall lie or be instituted in any court unless it is commenced

(a) within three months next after the act, neglect or default complained of; or
(b) in the case of a continuation of damage or injury, within six months next after the ceasing thereof.

(3) No suit shall be commenced against the Executive Chairman, a member of the Board, or any other officer or employee of the Service before the expiration of a period of one month after written notice of the intention to commence the suit shall have been served on the Service by the intending plaintiff or his agent.

(4) The notice referred to in subsection (3) of this section shall clearly and explicitly state the -

- (a) cause of action;
- (b) particulars of claim;
- (c) name and place of abode of the intending plaintiff; and
- (d) relief which he claims.

56. A notice, summons or other document required or authorized to be served on Service of documents the Service under the provisions of this Act or any other law or enactment may be served by delivering it to the Executive Chairman or by sending it by registered post addressed to the Executive Chairman at the principal office of the Service.

57.-(1) In any action or suit against the Service no execution or attachment of process in the nature thereof shall be issued against the Service unless not less than three months notice of the intention to execute or attach has been given to the Service.

(2) Any sum of money which by the judgment of any court has been awarded against the Service shall, subject to any direction given by the court, where no notice of appeal against the judgment has been given, be paid from the fund of the Service.

58. The Executive Chairman, a member of the Board or any officer or employee of the Service shall be indemnified out of the assets of the Service against any liability incurred by him in defending, any proceeding, whether civil or criminal if the proceeding is brought against him in his capacity as Executive Chairman, a member of the Board, officer or other employee of the Service.

59.-(1) A Tax Appeal Tribunal is established as provided for in the fifth Schedule to this Act.

(2) The Tribunal shall have power to settle disputes arising from the operations of this Act and under the First Schedule.

PART VIII-MISCELLANEOUS PROVISIONS

60. The Minister may give to the Service or the Executive Chairman such directives of a general nature or relating generally to matters of policy with regards to the exercise of its or his functions as he may consider necessary and the Service or the Executive Chairman shall comply with the directives or cause them to be complied with.

61. The Board may with the approval of the Minister, make rules and regulations as in its opinion are necessary or expedient for giving full effect to the provisions of this Act and for the due administration of its provisions and may in particular, make regulations prescribing the -

(a) forms for returns and other information required under this Act or any other enactment or law; and

(b) procedure for obtaining any information required under this Act or any other enactment or law.

62.-(1) Part I of the Companies Income Tax Act (in this Act referred to as "the repealed enactment") is repealed.

(2) The Federal Board of Inland Revenue established pursuant to the repealed enactment is dissolved.

(3) The repeal of the enactment specified in subsection (1) of this section shall not affect anything done or purported to have been done under the repealed enactment.

63.-(1) Notwithstanding anything to the contrary in this Act, a director, employee, staff or officer, who, immediately before the commencement of this Act held office in the Federal Board of Inland Revenue (including the Federal Inland Revenue Service hereinafter referred to as "the former Board") existing immediately before the commencement of this Act and who has been made an offer of employment by the Service, is deemed to have been transferred to the Service established under this Act on terms and conditions not less favourable than those obtaining immediately before the commencement of this Act and service or employment in the former Board is deemed to be service or employment in the Service established under this Act for purposes of pension.

(2) Every director, employee, staff or officer transferred into the Service by virtue of subsection (1) of this section shall notify the Service established under this Act in writing within 60 days after the commencement of this Act or after he receives an offer of appointment from the Board (which-ever is later) of his acceptance and any director, employee, staff or officer who fails to notify the Service is deemed to have rejected the offer.

(3) Any director, employee, staff or officer referred to in subsection (2) is deemed to be an employee of the Service established under this Act, beginning on the day that this Act comes into force and ending on the expiry of the period of grace under subsection (2) or on the day of his written refusal and the Service established under this Act is deemed to be his employer for all purposes during that period.

(4) An employee who is not transferred or who refuses the transfer or a job offer made by the Board established under this Act, as specified in subsection (1) of this section, shall be transferred to the Office of the Head of the Civil Service of the Federation for redeployment in the Civil Service of the Federation within the time specified in subsection (2) of this section.

64.-(1) There shall be vested in the Service established under this Act and without further assurance, all assets, funds, resources and other immovable property which immediately before the commencement of this Act were vested in the former Board existing immediately before the commencement of this Act.

(2) All rights, interest, obligations and liabilities of the former Board existing immediately before the commencement of this Act under any contract or instrument, or in law or in equity apart from any contract or instrument, shall by virtue of this Act be assigned to and vested in the Service established under this Act.

(3) Any contract or instrument referred to in subsection (2) of this section shall be of the same force and effect against or in favour of the Service established under this Act and shall be enforceable as fully and effectively as if, instead of the former Board existing immediately before the commencement of this Act, the Service established under this Act had been named or had been a party.

(4) The Service established under this Act shall be subject to all obligations and liabilities to which the former Board existing immediately before the commencement of this Act was subject immediately before the commencement of this Act, and all other persons shall as from the commencement of this Act have the same rights, powers and remedies against the Service as they had against the former Board existing immediately before the commencement of this Act.

(5) Any proceeding or cause of action pending or existing immediately before the commencement of this Act by or against the former Board existing immediately before the commencement of this Act in respect of any right, interest, obligation or liability of the former Board may be continued, or as the case may require, be commenced and the determination of a court of law, tribunal or other authority or person may be enforced by or against the Service to the same extent that such cause of action or determination might have been continued, or enforced by or against the former Board as if this Act had not been made.

(6) Any regulation, order, bye-law or notice made or issued or deemed to be made or issued by, or for the purposes of the former Board existing immediately before the commencement of this Act shall be deemed to have been made or issued by or for the purposes of the Service and shall continue in force until revoked or as amended, subject to such modifications as may be applicable to the Service established under this Act.

65. Subject to the provisions of this Act, the Executive Chairman of the former Board is deemed to have been transferred to the Service established under this Act in the same capacity.

66.-(1) As from the commencement of this Act, any disciplinary proceeding pending or existing against any employee of the government who has opted into the service of the former Board, shall be continued and completed by the Board established under this Act.

(2) An appeal or grievance already filed but which has not been finally disposed of on the coming into force of this Act shall be dealt with and disposed of in accordance with the Public Service Rules as if this Act had not come into force.

67.-(1) The administration and control of all rights obligations and liabilities that were under the administration and control of the former Board are hereby transferred to the Service established under this Act.
